NSW RURAL DOCTORS NETWORK

RDN GP LOCUM SERVICE

Are you a GP available to provide occasional short-term relief to permanent rural GPs?

Would you like to contribute to the health and wellbeing of rural communities?

GP locum work will broaden your professional skills and allow you to experience varied and challenging work whilst making a real difference!

The NSW Rural Doctors Network (RDN) GP Locum Service provides:

- travel subsidies and remote location subsidies for eligible placements
- opportunities for GPs and their families to attend RDN CPD conferences for remote (RA4-5) and Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Service (ACCHS) placements
- information about placements, locum conditions and planning support and advice
- a fortnightly locum e-newsletter, a list of current vacancies on our website and our unique Locum Match service.

RDN LOCUM MATCH

INSTANT ACCESS TO ROLES MATCHING YOUR AVAILABILITY

RDN Locum Match is a unique and free service that will alert you to every locum vacancy that coincides with your available dates.

RDN Locum Match will:

- save you time and effort searching through a large volume of vacancies
- provide you with instant notification of every new role across rural NSW matching your availability
- help you seamlessly connect with selected practices by sending them your CV and relevant documentation
- inform RDN when you have connected with practices so that we can provide support, incentives and access to CPD events where eligible.

To access Locum Match, please register your interest to work as a GP Locum via the RDN website at www.nswrdn.com.au/locums
